

STATE	COUNTY	TOWN OR VICINITY
DELAWARE	Kent	Leipsic - On Little Duck Creek at the south end of town 2p
INDEX NUMBER	MONUMENT	INTERIORS ONLY 2d
DEL, 1-LEIP, 2	Snowland (Andrew Naudain House)
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE	H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. DEL-145	History - This plantation house was built by Andrew Naudain in the second half of the eighteenth century. The house name, Snowland, was derived from the maiden name of his wife, Rebecca Snow.
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS
		Description - Brick painted white, two-and-a-half-stories, symmetrical

(over)

main block five bays wide faces southwest, two bays on northwest end slightly later, one-and-a-half story wing on southeast, simple interior woodwork, representative of a rather simple Georgian tradition in Delaware. The porch is a later addition.

Author of Card - Osmund R. Overby, Architect
National Park Service, 143 South Third Street,
Philadelphia 6, Pa. - October 1960.